La Asesoría Académica

La asesoría académica es un servicio a través del cual encontrarás apoyo para favorecer el logro de tus aprendizajes. Se brinda mediante sesiones de estudio adicionales a la carga horaria reglamentaria y se te apoya para despejar dudas sobre temas específicos. También se te recomiendan materiales adicionales (bibliografía complementaria, ejercicios, resúmenes, tutoriales, páginas web, entre otros), de los que podrás apoyarte para el estudio independiente y evitar el rezago académico.

La asesoría académica puede ser:

- a) Preventiva: acciones con los alumnos que tienen bajo aprovechamiento académico, han reprobado evaluaciones parciales o no lograron comprender algún contenido curricular, y que requieren apoyo para adquirir o reforzar aprendizajes específicos de alguna asignatura, módulo o submódulo. Consiste en lograr que el alumno mejore la calidad de sus aprendizajes, incremente su rendimiento académico y evite la reprobación.
- b) Remedial: son acciones con los alumnos que al finalizar el semestre han reprobado alguna asignatura, módulo o submódulo y requieren apoyo académico para mejorar los aprendizajes frente a las evaluaciones extraordinarias y en general para alcanzar los aprendizajes establecidos en el programa de estudios correspondiente. Su propósito es que los alumnos regularicen su situación académica y eviten el abandono escolar.

My message as the Principal of this College is that, "I want you to stay happy in this School". This the best institute in the City but it doesn't mean you can behave in any way you want to. In this school, we all have some rules to follow carefully; for example, the school bell rings at 8:00 am and you need to get fast to your classrooms, where you will wait until your class starts. You need to talk to the teachers politely and also you have to respect your classmates and behave kindly.

When break time is scheduled, it is very important that all students walk silently through the halls and if you are in a hurry, cautiously walk quickly and silently through the halls or classrooms because running is not allowed.

By the way, I need to mention that students can not interrupt classes rudely.

I hope we all enjoy the beginning of this semester. Welcome back to the best Institute in the City.

¿Tuviste problemas para resolver el ejercicio?, no te preocupes aquí te daremos los puntos principales relacionados al tema, para que puedas resolver y aclares dudas.

Lo primero que tienes que saber es que hay varios tipos de conjunciones y que en esta lección nos vamos a enfocar únicamente en las conjunciones relativas y en particular en tres de ellas: both, either y neither.

¿Qué son? Son conjunciones que vienen en pares y nos sirven para conectar palabras y/o frases. Su función principal es enfatizar que en la oración dos ideas están relacionadas.

Correlative conjunctions

Both / and

Conecta dos personas o dos objetos, dándoles la misma importancia a ambos. Siempre se usa con verbos afirmativos. Nos habla de dos elementos de un grupo de dos, lo usamos con sustantivos singulares, both significa ambos.

Shakira sings in both languages Spanish and English

Shakira canta en ambos idiomas español e inglés.

Either / or

Esta conjunción, nos brinda la oportunidad de elegir entre dos opciones, solo puedes elegir una, pero están en igualdad de condición, ambos son válidas. Either significa cualquiera de los 2.

We can go either Cancun or Los Cabos for your birthday.

Podemos ir a cualquiera Cancún o Los Cabos por tu cumpleaños.

Neither nor

Utilizamos esta combinación para negar personas, cosas o situaciones de la misma importancia. 'Nor' es la forma negativa de 'or'. En este caso rechaza dos posibilidades. Debes tomar en cuenta que esta conjunción proyecta una idea negativa, el verbo generalmente irá en su forma negativa. Neither significa ninguno (de los dos).

Neither Carlos Rivera nor Belinda will sing in the concert.

Ni Carlos Rivera ni Belinda cantaran en el concierto.

Veamos como el uso de estas tres conjunciones, nos pueden ayudar a comparar las características de objetos, personas o situaciones.

Both – and	Juan Gabriel and Jose Jose were both great singers. Juan Gabriel y José José eran ambos grandes cantantes.
Either – or	We can either listen to Juan Gabriel or Jose Jose Podemos escuchar a Juan Gabriel o a José José
Neither – nor	Neither Juan Gabriel nor Jose Jose sang in French. Ni Juan Gabriel ni José José cantaron en francés.

En inglés, la palabra "both" (ambos) nos señala dos de un grupo de dos, en igualdad de condiciones, "Either" refiere uno de un grupo de dos es decir cualquiera de los dos, también en igualdad de condiciones, es decir que cualquiera de las opciones está en la misma posición, "Neither" indica cero de un grupo de dos ("ninguno").

Lesson 4. Comparative and superlative adjectives

Explorando

Students will be able to express similarities or differences in products, objects, people or situations using suffixes er or est, or more, as and the most.

Mark with an "X" the adjectives where you can use the suffix ER or EST correctly brief	()	beautiful	()	quiet	()	efficiently	()	filthy	()

nice	()	interesting	()	bright	()	important	()	black	()
hot	()	popular	()	bad	()	difficult	()	itchy	()
fancy	()	tired	()	quick	()	quickly	()	young	()
cute	()	beautiful	()	young	()	famous	()	sweet	()
hot	()	quiet	()	nice	()	expensive	()	bad	()
old	()	slow	()	fast	()	rapidly	()	good	()
big	()	bossy	()	dry	()	perfect	()	far	()

Comprendiendo

To form comparative and superlative adjectives you need to follow the next rules

For one and two syllable adjectives ending in "y" and before of it there is a vowel you will have to replace "y" with "i" + suffix er or est as for example:

Shiny- shinier. Or shiniest.

With the structure consonant + vowel +consonant or short vowels you must double the final consonant as for example:

big-bigger-biggest

When the word has more than two syllable you just keep the adjective the same but add the word “more” before the adjective or the most in case of superlative, as for example: More perfect or the most perfect. Even though there are also some irregular forms that don't follow these rules.

Comparative adjectives which are formed either by adding -er at the end of the adjective or placing more before of it must be followed by the word than.

Superlative adjectives which are formed either by adding -est at the end of the adjective or placing “the most” before of the adjective.

If you are comparing adjectives that are equal you must use the following structure:

as + adjective or adverb + as like the following example:

- Jason drives as quickly as he can, just to arrive on time.
- You can eat as healthy as you want
- We are as successful as they are

Most of the performers are human! There is Leopold, the strongest man in the world. His father also worked in the circus but Leopold is stronger than him, he has bigger arms and bigger legs too! Leopold performs his act every night for the town's people who come to watch.

Another performer is Clara. She says she has the longest hair in the World. It's about 4 metres long! She also has a daughter who works in the circus. Her name is Sue-Ellen. Her hair is a lot shorter but she wants to grow it as long as her mother's. Sue-Ellen helps look after the animals and she's also learning how to juggle.

The highlights of the circus are the three clowns, Pit, Pot, and Pat. They all wear long red shoes, but Pat's shoes are the longest and sometimes, he falls over because they're so long! They perform for about twenty minutes and they are always the most popular act with the audience, especially the children. Many people think Pit, Pot and Pat are three brothers, but Pat is older than the other two -he's their father-He is the oldest clown in the country, but he has a lot of energy.

Auxiliary verbs

Los verbos auxiliares son verbos que ayudan a otros verbos y que generalmente van acompañando a verbos de acción, aunque en algunos casos pueden usarse solos. Con ayuda de los verbos auxiliares podemos formar los tiempos compuestos como los continuos, perfectos, al igual que la voz pasiva, también son los que utilizamos para poder negar o preguntar. De hecho, este último punto es el que vamos a reforzar en esta lección, durante los semestres pasados los has estado usando en los diferentes tiempos que se han trabajado en inglés. ¿No los recuerdas?, ya verás que sí, los verbos auxiliares son: be, have, do y Will. Vamos a recordar cómo y cuándo los usamos al preguntar.

Estructura de las preguntas afirmativas

Tiempo	Auxiliar	sujeto	Verbo	Complemento	Significado
Presente	Do I, you, they, we	you	study	english?	¿estudias inglés?
	Does He, she, it	she	finish	her homework?	¿termina su tarea?
Pasado	Did	you	study	english?	¿estudiaste inglés?
	Did	he	finish	his homework?	¿terminó su tarea?
Futuro	Will	you	study	english?	¿estudiaras inglés?
	Will	she	finish	her homework?	¿Terminará su tarea?

Como puedes ver en el cuadro anterior, la estructura de las preguntas es muy sencilla, casi toda es igual, lo que cambia según el tiempo son justo los auxiliares, en presente solo tienes que fijarte bien porque dependiendo del sujeto, el verbo auxiliar puede ser Do o Does, pero ya te pusimos en el cuadro cuales van con cada uno por si no lo recordabas. En lo que corresponde al pasado y el futuro no hay problema porque los auxiliares van con cualquier pronombre. Recuerda también que el tiempo del verbo no cambia, nuevamente la diferencia la hace el verbo auxiliar.

En caso del presente perfecto que vimos el semestre pasado, el verbo, si cambia de tiempo, las estructuras del cuadro anterior utilizan el verbo en su forma infinitiva (sin el To) pero para los tiempos perfectos, tanto el presente como para el pasado, que veremos más adelante, el verbo tanto en su forma afirmativa, negativa como interrogativa van en pasado participio.

Tiempo	Auxiliar	sujeto	Verbo en pasado participio	Complemento	Significado
Presente perfecto	Have I, you, they, we	you	seen	my glasses?	¿Has visto mis lentes?
	Has She, he, it	he	finished	his homework?	¿Ha terminado su tarea?

Respecto, al verbo To be, el famoso ser o estar que hemos trabajado desde primer semestre, lo podemos usar como auxiliar o como verbo principal. Primero veamos la estructura cuando se usa como verbo principal.

Estructura de las preguntas con verbo To be

Tiempo	Auxiliar	sujeto	Complemento	Significado
Presente	Am I	I	in your team?	¿estoy en tu equipo?
	Is He,she,it	she	your friend?	¿es tu amiga?
	Are you, they, we	you	my student?	¿eres mi estudiante?
Pasado	Was I, she, he, it	he	In your class?	¿estaba en tu clase?
	Were You, they, we	they	your teachers?	¿eran tus maestros?

¿Y puedes hacer preguntas negativas?

Claro, nuevamente lo único que cambia es el auxiliar, que ahora irá en su forma negativa. Para el caso del to be, have, auxiliares modales y tiempos continuos aplica el mismo cambio, te ponemos algunos ejemplos.

Estructura de las preguntas negativas.

Tiempo	Auxiliar	sujeto	Verbo	Complemento
Presente	Don't I, you, they, we	you	study	english?
	Doesn't He,she,it	she	finish	her homework?
Pasado	Didn't	you	study	english?
	Didn't	he	finish	his homework?
Futuro	Won't	you	study	english?
	Won't	she	finish	her homework?

Además de los verbos que ya hemos explicado, también podemos hacer uso de los verbos auxiliares modales y no te preocupes, aunque son varios la estructura es la misma para todos. El verbo to be también lo usamos para formar los tiempos continuos, en esta lección solo nos enfocaremos en el presente y pasado continuo, se aplicamos la misma estructura que para los auxiliares modales, solo que al verbo de acción le agregamos "ing".

Estructura de las preguntas con verbos auxiliares modales.

Auxiliar	sujeto	verbo de acción	Complemento	Significado
Can	I	talk	ith you?	¿Puedo hablar contigo?
Could	you	open	the door?	¿Podrías abrir la puerta?
Would	you	help	me?	¿Me ayudarías?
Should	I	bring	my birthday certificate?	¿Debo traer mi acta de nacimiento?
Must	he	respect	the law?	¿Debe respetar la ley?
May	I	come	in?	¿Puedo pasar?
Might	he	write	a new book?	¿Podría escribir un nuevo libro?
Is	she	reading	my book?	¿Está leyendo mi libro?
Are	you	listening	to me?	¿Me estas escuchando?

Por último, te recordamos que también puedes hacer uso de las question words para preguntar algo más específico. Estas son:

What (qué o cuál)

Where (dónde),

When (cuándo)

Who (quién)

Why (por qué)

Which (cuál)

How (cómo)

Estas se agregan cuando quieres saber algo más concreto y generalmente usan la misma estructura que ya vimos, pero van antes del auxiliar, usando algunos de los ejemplos que ya vimos en los cuadros anteriores vamos agregar algunas Wh questions para que recuerdes cómo se usan.

Do you study english? significa ¿Estudias inglés? pero si queremos saber cuándo, dónde o porqué, por poner unos ejemplos, tendríamos que agregar la Wh question que necesitemos según lo que queremos saber.

When do you study english?

¿Cuándo estudias inglés?

Where do you study english?

¿Dónde estudias inglés?

Why do you study english?

¿Por qué estudias inglés?

En el caso de otros ejemplos que usamos, así quedarían usando Wh questions.

when can I talk with you?

¿Cuándo puedo hablar contigo?

Who is she?

¿Quién es ella?

Where is he?

¿Dónde está él?

Why is she reading my book?

¿Por qué está leyendo mi libro?

Practicando

Muy bien, esperando que tus dudas hayan quedado resueltas, y ahora vamos a practicar el uso de los verbos auxiliares al realizar preguntas, te recuerdo que hay varias claves para saber cuál es el auxiliar correcto, uno es el sujeto y otra son las expresiones de tiempo.

¿Qué es una “tag question”?

De manera simple, se puede definir a un “tag question” como una pregunta de confirmación que se agrega al final de una oración afirmativa o negativa.

¿Existe en tu lengua materna algo parecido a la tag questions?

En español si existen este tipo de preguntas. Aunque su estructura es distinta a la del inglés, estas preguntas tienen la misma función. Algunos de los ejemplos serían: ¿Verdad?, ¿cierto? ¿o sí? ¿o no?. Por ejemplo: Terminaste toda tu tarea, ¿o no? Martín llega temprano a la escuela todos los días, ¿verdad?

¿Cuál es la estructura de una “tag question” en inglés

La tag question tiene dos elementos después de la frase especulativa; estos son “auxiliar y pronombre.

Ejemplos:

A. Oración en forma afirmativa, auxiliar negativo y pronombre personal.

Joseph sings very well, doesn't he?

Se utiliza el auxiliar “does” ya que es una expresión en presente simple y se utiliza el pronombre “he” que hace referencia a Joseph.

Oraciones en forma negativas, auxiliar y pronombre personal.

Sofy won't forget the umbrella at home, will she?

Se utiliza el auxiliar “does” ya que es una expresión en presente simple y se utiliza el pronombre “he” que hace referencia a Joseph.

Parte importante de la elaboración de una “Tag question” es la identificación del auxiliar de la frase a la que se le va a agregar la pregunta de confirmación. Recuerda que a todas las oraciones les corresponde un auxiliar, aunque no esté visible.

Lesson 7. Linking words

Instructions: Read the following paragraph and underlin the linking words you know.

There is a biological reason why drinking animal milk is odd.

Milk contains a type of sugar called lactose, which is distinct from the sugars found in fruit and other sweet foods. When we are babies, our bodies make a special enzyme called lactase that allows us to digest the lactose in our mother's milk. But after all this, we are weaned in early childhood, for many people this stops. Without lactase, we cannot properly digest the lactose in milk. As a result, if an adult drinks a lot of milk they may experience flatulence, painful cramps and even diarrhea. (It's worth noting that in other mammals, there aren't any lactase-persistent adults – adult cows don't have active lactase, and neither do cats or dogs, for example).
